Conference Brochure

Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues,

It is our proud privilege and pleasure to invite you to the 7th Annual Conference of the Neurological Surgeons Society of India - NSSICON 2018, to be held from 23rd to 25th of February 2018 at the Scientific Convention Centre, King George Medical University, Lucknow, India.

The mega three-day event hosted by department of Neurosurgery KGMU, under the aegis of the Lucknow Neuro Club promises excellent and informative scientific programs include quiz, panel discussions and interactive sessions on the latest fields of Neurosurgery (Neuro-endoscopy, Minimal access Neurosurgery, Neurocritical care, Intravascular neurosurgery and Neuro-oncology).

NSSICON 2018 will be an excellent platform for the new entrants in this field to learn about all these patient friendly techniques from the masters. At the same time, it will also be a great opportunity for the established surgeons to hone their skills and learn about the further advancement happening in the field.

All the National and International Faculty members are respected names in their field and it will be a great opportunity for us to learn from their collective experience.

The one-day pre-conference workshop is one of the main highlights of the conference and just a few vacant spots are up for grabs now.

We look forward to welcome you all in Lucknow and urge you to mark your dates for the event.

Dr. B.K. Ojha

National Organizing Chairman

Dr. S.K. Singh

Organizing Secretary
